RECOGNITION AFFORDED BY THIS DESIGNATION

The Universal Life Church is a bona fide religious organization. Under the First Amendment and California Family Code § 400, a person 18 years of age or older who is authorized by a religious denomination may solemnize marriage in California. The State does not require ministers to register credentials with any government office.

As an ordained ULC minister, the named person may officiate weddings, funerals, baptisms, and other rites customarily performed by clergy, subject to the laws of the place where a ceremony is performed. California clerks generally accept ULC ordination. Always confirm local clerk practice before a ceremony with legal effect.
